

Fariborz Karimi is an Iranian theatre maker based in Amsterdam. He develops works with different materials such as sound, objects, videos to present concepts of Language, Identity, psychological disorders, liveness, presence, and absence. He is an Artistic Director of the Bohemi theater group, Co-founder and co-director of the Reconnect Festival, and Founder and Artistic Director of the Theatrical Exchange Residency. Fariborz's works have been participated in several international festivals such as Bozar institute in Brussels (Welcome to Tehran project) (2018), ACT festival in Bilbao (2017), ITfok Festival in Kerala (2016), ITS Festival in Amsterdam (2015), and Fadjr festival in Tehran (2016,2019).

He has studied his bachelor's in Acting and Directing at the University of Tehran in 2014 and he is a master's student at DAS Theater at Das Graduate school in Amsterdam University of arts since 2021.