

"An artist shouldn't be defined by their education, by the amount of jobs they had, or by others. Passion is what creates an artist.

I am the artist that I am today because of my passion. It has lend me to learn everything that I know now; it took my hand, and that's why I ended having the artistic jobs that I had, doing the things that I did.

I've studied, I got prepared, I've read, I've practiced a lot and I gave my body and soul to the Arts.

That's who I am."
